RETRENCHMENT.

Many of our readers are doubtless tired of having the stereotyped phrase which forms the heading to this article staring them in the face every week, especially in these enervating dog-days. We are as tired writing the word as anybody can be in seeing it in print. It is far from a pleasing task to be everlastingly in opposition to the Government—eternally growling and finding fault with those in the service of the State, and making enemies of men with whom one is thrown into daily contact. But a stern duty we owe to the public, as well as to ourselves, and our children, must altogether outweigh any personal feelings and considerations of this sort. It is our determination, therefore, regardless of all considerations of a more private nature, to continue to hammer this nail on the head till we have driven it well home in the official mind—it needs not to be driven in the public mind—and if we should get tired "Argus" will doubtless come to our relief. Like Dan O'Connell we mean to "agitate, agitate," until the country is in some measure relieved from the load which is crushing its tender limbs and dwarfing and crippling its whole body, and until those who profess to administer its affairs "according to the well understood wishes of the people" are compelled to listen to these wishes, and pay becoming deference thereto. Ignorance of the real state of public feeling upon the subject of retrenchment can no longer be pleaded. We do not believe it to be too much to say that there is not a man in the Colony, outside official circles, who is not thoroughly convinced that retrenchment in the public service is not only practicable but an absolute necessity. Yes, we are wrong. There is one man in the Colony who believes, or professes to believe, that "the civil list is not excessive, and that the country is well able to afford it." But that individual is the "gentleman of the seventeenth century," and his opinion is not entitled to very much consideration in this enlightened, progressive and eminently practical age. Such being the position of the question the head of the Government cannot longer ignore public sentiment, thereabout without laying himself open to the serious charge of governing in the interests of the official classes rather than those of the country. The practice of drawing blood from animals of the bovine genus, for the purpose of making black-pudding, of which the Scotch are said to be very fond, is reputed to be not uncommon in the northern parts of Scotland. It is told of one Donald McLeish that he became so fond of the black-pudding, as to reduce his cattle so much that they died from sheer loss of blood, drawn off to keep Donald in his favorite dish. Our officials may not unfrequently be compared to Donald McLeish, and the unfortunate colonists to Donald's bovine stock. They are unkind fond of black-pudding, and they are now drawing the life-blood of the people in order to gratify their inordinate appetite for it; and if they are permitted to draw much more we must even share the fate of Donald's cows. It needs no argument, no oral evidence, to prove that this is the position of British Columbia. The proof stares one in the face every day, at every turn. Officials, as thick as blackberries, and as sleek as seals, meet you at every corner. The country has been reduced to so low a condition by over-taxation, mismanagement on the part of the local Government, and neglect on the part of the Home Government, that the whole thing doesn't amount to more than a good county in the more remote parts of Canada, and the affairs of which are managed for as many hundreds of dollars as we pay thousands of pounds! The matter has come to that point beyond which forbearance ceases to be a virtue, and redress must be had, by whatever means. There is no use in mincing matters; a sweeping reduction of our expenses is essential to our existence as a colony, and if our officials have not sense enough to see the policy, to say nothing of a higher motive, of bowing to necessity and public opinion, if they are not clever enough to make a virtue of necessity, it will become the duty of the people to seek redress in a way, and in a quarter which will ensure success, and may be unpleasant to some.

THE GRAND PROMOTERS OF HEALTH.

HOLLOWAY'S PILLS.

The grand secret of attaining happiness is to secure good health, without which life is a mere shadow.

The first irregularity of any function should be checked and set right by appropriate doses of these famous Pills, which stimulate the system, and thereby cleanse the blood from all impurities. They balance disordered action, remove the cause of disturbance, and restore its natural and natural power to every organ, without inconvenience, pain, or any other drawback.

Derangement of the Bowels, Liver and Stomach Complaints.

This is a very common complaint in every part of the world, and the cause of it is a derangement of the stomach and bowels, which, if not quickly attended to, frequently terminates fatally. A few doses of these famous Pills will give tone to the stomach, regularity to the secretions, and purity to the fluids. Vertigo, dizziness of sight, and other indications of approaching apoplexy, are cured by a course of this admirable medicine.

Determination of Blood to the Head.

This is generally occasioned by some irregularity of the stomach and bowels, which, if not quickly attended to, frequently terminates fatally. A few doses of these famous Pills will give tone to the stomach, regularity to the secretions, and purity to the fluids. Vertigo, dizziness of sight, and other indications of approaching apoplexy, are cured by a course of this admirable medicine.

The Female's Best Friend.

For all debilitating disorders peculiar to the sex, and in every continuing form of the life of women, youthful or aged, married or single, this mild but speedy remedy is recommended with friendly earnestness. It will correct all functional derangements to which they are subject.

Scrofula and all Skin Diseases.

For all skin diseases, however inveterate, these medicines are a sovereign remedy. While the Pills act upon the system, they purify the blood, and cleanse every structure, as water saturates the soil or as salt penetrates meat. The whole physical machinery is thus rendered healthy, regular and vigorous.

Coughs, Colds and Asthmas.

No medicine will cure colds of long duration or such as are settled upon the chest so quickly as these famous Pills. Even in cases where the first stage of asthma has appeared, these Pills may be relied on as a certain and never-failing remedy, particularly if the patient be simultaneously well-purged into the chest and throat night and morning.

Indigestion—Bilious Headache.

These complaints may sometimes be considered trifling but it should be borne in mind that, by neglecting and neglecting, they often end upon seriously. Give early thought to a deranged stomach, take Holloway's Pills, rub his celebrated Ointment over the pit of the stomach, and you will shortly perceive a change for the better in your digestion, spirits, appetite, strength and energy. The improvement, though it may be gradual, will be thorough and lasting.

Holloway's Pills are the best remedy known in the world for the following diseases:—

Ague, Female Irregularity, Scrofula, or King's Evil, Bilious Complaints, Fevers of all Sorts, Throat, Stomach and Bowel Complaints, Secondary Syphilis, Skin Diseases, Headache, Gout, Rheumatism, Dropsy, Consumption, Lung Disease, Hemorrhoids, Piles, Retention of Urine, &c., &c.

Sold at the establishment of Professor Holloway, 244, Strand, (near Temple Bar) London; also by all respectable Druggists and Dealers in Medicines throughout the civilized world, at the following prices:—1s. 12d., 2s. 6d., 4s. 6d., 11s. 22s., and 36s., each Box.

There is a considerable saving by taking the larger sizes.

S. B.—Directions for the guidance of patients in every disorder are affixed to each box.

"Cariboo Sentinel."

THE UNDERSIGNED, Proprietors and Publishers of the "CARIBOO SENTINEL," in announcing to their friends and the public that their arrangements have been completed for issuing the first number on or about the first day of May next, would most respectfully solicit a continuance of the patronage and support heretofore bestowed on them.

While anticipating their determination of publishing twice, instead of once a week as formerly, the undersigned would draw attention to the very efficient postal system now established throughout British Columbia, which will enable them to forward the SENTINEL to nearly every Mining Camp in the Colony, particularly to the newly discovered Mines on the Columbia, from whence they will be in constant receipt of the latest and most reliable intelligence, thus rendering the columns of their paper a most desirable medium of publicity for the business public.
